➤ Advanced Technical Training: eDirectory Seminar

Novell and PowerNet Presents have announced the launch of a 2-day eDirectory Seminar. This seminar will be taught by industry expert (and NUI favorite son) Gary Porter and is the MUST ATTEND event of the year. This seminar will only be offered for a limited time and in limited locations around North America. To find out more click on the URL below. Remember that seats are filling fast and time is running out. Check it out NOW at <https://www.wes-scs.com/edirectory>

To Receive a 25% NUI Discount on this Seminar You Must Register Via Phone at (800) 228-7613

➤ BrainShare On Tour

BrainShare on Tour continues to bring the best of BrainShare 2000 to cities around the country. Many of the stops have NUI members serving as instructors! If you have not yet registered for the tour stop coming to your city (or a city near you) check out the details at the BrainShare on Tour website.

NUI members are eligible for a $50 discount. During the registration process choose the city you wish to attend and hit 'continue'. Next enter your first name and last name AND, in order to get the discount, enter BSOT249 in the Access Code field. This will give you a $50.00 discount off the price, so your final cost is $249.00.

➤ Contest!!! Contest!!! Contest!!! Contest!!!

We are looking for the longest continuous-running commercial (sorry, no home labs!) Novell box out there. Do you think your shop, or one you know of, might have the one? Let us know and you could win a Palm Pilot PDA! The first TEN respondents will receive NUI Mini Leatherman tools. Send your entries to Curtis Dye at cjdye@novell.com.

➤ NUI/Novell Education Career Resource Center

June 1st is the scheduled launch date for the new Career Resource Center, which will be co-hosted by NUI and Novell Education. This resource promises to be state-of-the-art with powerful web tools such as metacrawls to every major IT job board, forums and extensive online links.

➤ NUI Webcast

In early June (date and time TBA) Dave Eckert of Novell's Product Group will present NetWare 5.1 vs. Windows 2000. This comparison presentation was one of the hottest at BrainShare 2000. Look for further details in the next update letter.
